

Index

- Accelerated life course concept, 91
- Adolescent employment
- full-time work, 453–454
  - and gender, 445
  - hours of work, 443–444
  - intensity of job, 444, 446, 448–449
  - interviewee accounts, 455
  - investment in work, degrees of, 444, 447
  - labor market benefits of, 439–440
  - link to higher education, 449–452
  - negative views of, 438–439
  - quality of work, 445–446
  - and socioeconomic status, 440–441, 446, 448–449
  - Youth Development Study (YDS), 441–444
- Adolescent pregnancy
- child outcome, 134
  - and family environment, 133–134
  - and grandparent-headed households, 155
- Adolescent substance abuse, 422–430
- and adult outcomes, 422–426
  - and amotivational syndrome, 246
  - constructive aspects of, 427
  - as coping strategy, 427
  - and developmental tasks, 426–427
  - and developmental transitions, 423–426
  - negative effects of, 422–423
  - studies related to, 422–423
- Adolescents
- criminality. See Delinquency
  - developmental tasks of, 421
  - developmental transitions, 419–420
  - health status, 130–131, 632–635
  - identity and social context, 35–36, 39
  - social capital of, 628, 632–635
  - student incentives and social context (study), 53–73
  - substance use. See Adolescent substance abuse
- Adolescents (cont.)
- teen pregnancy. See Adolescent pregnancy
  - transition to adulthood, 130
  - well-being and family, 130–132
  - work experience. See Adolescent employment
- Adult children
- coresidence patterns, 154
  - future view, 667
  - nursing home versus family caregiving by, 138–139
- Adult development
- and adolescent substance abuse, 422–426
  - See also* Childhood–adulthood links;
Early adulthood; Elderly
- Adult education, educational trajectories view, 176
- Adultolescents
- meaning of, 154
  - See also* Adult children
- African-Americans
- criminal behavior, 312
  - and extended family, 153
  - first-grade test scores, 233
  - and self-efficacy, 380
- Age
- and cohort approach, 9–10
  - multiple meanings of, 10, 14
  - resource allocation, future view, 666
  - See also* Age norms; Age structuring
- Age-graded theories
- desistance from crime, 305–306, 321
  - life course, 530
- Age norms, 85–95
- age-based expectations, 85–86
  - as cognitive maps, 92–93
  - demographic view of, 85–86
  - individualism versus age deadlines (study), 88–92
  - Kansas City Study, 87

- Age norms (cont.)
 prescriptive-proscriptive norms, 86, 87–92 psychological view of, 86, 94 sociological view of, 86, 93
 timetables, types of, 94–95
- Age-period-cohort model
 age-period-cohort-characteristic (APCC) model, 473 development of, 466 identification problem, 467 separation of effects, informal approach, 473–475 separation of effects, statistical method, 467–472 of social change, 29–31 standard cohort table in, 466–467
- Age structuring, 81–86
 historical shifts in, 83–85 informal, 90–91
 and life span, 82–83
- Agency principle
 in life course approach, 11–12, 151, 532, 672
 and migration, 340
 and self, 369
See also Self-efficacy
- Aging
 and criminal behavior. See Desistance from crime
 global aging, 695
 of population, 151–152, 273
 and social change, 29
- Agreeableness, trait stability, 584
- Alexander, Karl L., 229
- Almazan, Elbert P., 391
- Alwin, Duane F., 23
- American Occupational Structure, The* (Blau and Duncan), 166, 167
- Americans' Changing Lives survey, 625
- Amoskeag Mill study, 7
- Amotivational syndrome, 246
- Anomie, 708
- Antisocial behavior age-graded theory of, 305–306
 stability of, 302–303
See also Criminal behavior; Delinquency
- Attachment
 and adult emotional health, 392, 403
 and life course, 132
- Baby Boom
 age and marriage, 103
 divorce rate, 153
 gays/lesbians among, 564–565
 parental influences on offspring outcomes (study), 158–159
 retirement issues, 272
 size, effects of, 26 war, as defining experience of, 42
 women, life path (study) of, 159–160
- Beginning School Study (BSS). See First-grade transition
- Behavior, family influences, 104, 107, 109
- Behavioral endocrinology, 612–618
 hormone–context interaction, 617
 hormones/behavior reciprocity, 615–617 hormones/behavior temporal relationship, 615–616
 and life course approach, 617–618
 organizational effects of hormones, 615
- Behavioral genetics, 604–612
 context and heritability studies, 609–611
 decomposition of variance approach, 606–608 developmental phenotypic focus, 611–612 gene–behavior correlations, 605
 gene–environment interaction, 605, 609–612
 and life course approach, 609–612
 measured genotype analysis approach, 608–609 Mendelian-based models, 608
 quantitative genetic analysis, 606–608
 quantitative trait loci (QTL), 608–609
 twin studies, 606–607
- Behavioral modeling, 682–683
- Bengtson, Vern L., 149
- Berkeley Guidance Study, 5, 12
- Bio-medical research, 668
- Biographical pacing concept
 basic principle of, 275
 retirement, 275
- Biological events
 behavioral endocrinology, 612–618
 behavioral genetics, 604–612
 biology–sociology link, 598–599
 future directions, 668
 life course interactions, 599
 life history theory, 600–604
 and life span development, 395
 research challenges, 599
- Birth cohorts
 characteristics of, 26
See also Cohort
- Birth order effects, 376
- Bowling Alone* (Putnam), 24
- Capital
 cultural capital, 665
 financial capital, 627
 human capital, 627
 nature of, 627
See also Social capital
- Career
 career lines, 167–168
 definition of, 167
See also Work; Work trajectories
- Caregiving
 nursing home versus family-provided, 138–139
 and retirement decisions, 279–280
- CASMIN classification, educational trajectories, 171–172
- Caspi, Avshalom, 579
- Catalyst/impediment model, developmental transitions, 424

- Categorical-content (content analysis) approach,
 life-story method, 560, 562
- Categorical-form (discourse analysis) approach,
 life-story method, 560
- Census data, historical demography, 684
- Chicago school, on modernization and
 life course, 707–708
- Childhood, definition of, 391
- Childhood–adulthood links, 392–404
 adolescent substance abuse, 422–428, 430
 for adult health, 397–400 and attachment relations, 392 contingent models of, 396
 early adversity, effects of, 400 environmental selection, 393–394 family background and marital problem-solving (study), 110–118
 linear models of, 396
 on marital outcome, 109–111, 132–133, 401–402
 and parental divorce, 401–402 parental influences on life course outcomes
 (study), 158–159
 parental values, 393 and paternal loss, 402–404
 self-concept, 394–395
 and single-parent families, 128, 375
 transactional models of, 396–397
See also Continuity and discontinuity; Stability
- Children of adolescent parents, 134
 developmental concepts. See Childhood–adulthood links; Family influences; Self-efficacy; Socialization
 schooling. See First-grade transition well-being, impact of family on, 127–129
- Children of the Great Depression* (Elder), 14, 371, 404
- Chronologization, elements of, 83–84
- Civic roles, and desistance from crime, 324–325
- Cognitive capabilities, gene-environment interaction, 610–611
- Cognitive maps, age norms as, 92–93
- Cohabitation, parental divorce/offspring divorce, 133
- Cohler, Bertram J., 555
- Cohort effect
 and cohort size, 26 compared to period effect, 30 identification of, 31–34
 meaning of, 9, 26–27, 30–31, 34
- Cohort replacement basic assumptions in, 34 versus generational replacement, 25, 28
 and social change, 34–36, 40–41
- Cohort sequential design, elements of, 31
- Cohort studies
 cohort sequential design, 31
 complications of, 31–34
 cross-sectional studies, 31
- Cohort studies (cont.)
 panel designs, 31
 variation in approaches, 9–10
See also Age-period-cohort model
- Cohort succession
 meaning of, 30
 and social change, 30–31
- Cohorts
 characteristics of, 26
 versus generations, 26–28, 41–42 identification, 556
 interrelationship with generations, 42, 558
 meaning of, 9
- Coleman, James, 129, 134
- Communitarianism, 706
- Communities
Gemeinschaft/Gessellschaft, 708 modernity, effects of, 705–706
- “Comparative Analysis of Social Mobility in Industrial Nations” (CASMIN), 171–172
- Conscientiousness, trait stability, 584–585
- Context
 family context, 125–127
 heritability studies, 609–611
 hormone–context interaction, 617
 life-history theory, 602
- Continuity and discontinuity, 415–421
 adolescent substance abuse, 422–430
 compared to stability, 416
 and developmental tasks, 420–421
 and developmental transitions, 420, 531
 functional discontinuity, 417
 homotypic continuity, 417
 issues related to, 418–419
 and life span development, 415–416
 meaning of, 416
 ontogenic continuity and discontinuity, 417–418
 personality traits, 580–592
See also Childhood–adulthood links; Stability
- Coping
 compared to problem-solving, 106
 meaning of, 106
- Cornell Couples and Careers Study, 8
- Cornell Retirement and Well-Being Study, 277–280
- Cortisol, and stress, 613, 616
- Cox model, event history analysis, 488–489, 494
- Crime in the Making: Pathways and Turning Points Through Life* (Sampson and Laub), 305–306, 317
- Criminal behavior
 and off-time normative transitions, 312–316
 patterns over time, 296 sociological theories of, 302 stability issue, 299, 301, 302–303, 317
 statistics on, 312
 stopping. See Desistance from crime
- Crosnoe, Robert, 3

- Cross-cultural studies, student incentives and social context in Japan (study), 53–73
- Cross-sectional surveys, elements of, 31
- Cultural capital, meaning of, 665
- Cultural influences, self-efficacy, 380
- Cultural Revolution, 12
- Dannefer, Dale, 647
- Darwin, Charles, 598, 600
- Davis, James, 40–41
- Death, parental, and child outcome, 403–404
- Decision-making theory, retirement, 276–277
- Decomposition of variance approach, 606–608
- Defined-contribution plans, 697
- Deinstitutionalization, of life course, 652–655, 693–694
- Delinquency
  - common acts of, 312
  - family influences, 131–132
  - and future criminality. See Desistance from crime
  - and off-time normative transitions, 312–313
  - status offenses, 319
- Delinquents and Nondelinquents in Perspective* (Glueck and Glueck), 305
- Demography, 681–690
  - age norms, meaning of, 85–86
  - aging of population, 151–152
  - behavioral modeling, 682–683
  - data collection methods, 683–684
  - historical change, 687
  - historical demography, 684
  - and life course approach, 6, 682–683
  - organization of discipline, 682
  - personal environments approach, 685
  - selectivity, 685–687
- Depression
  - Baby Boom women life path (study), 159–160
  - kindling model, 615
  - learned-helplessness, 370
  - and parental loss, 403
- Desistance from crime
  - age-graded theories, 305–306, 321
  - comparative view, 325
  - complications related to study of, 297–298
  - criminal embeddedness theory, 322
  - definition of desistance, 317
  - developmental views of, 302–303
  - heterogeneity perspective, 299–300
  - and maturation, 300–302
  - official desistance, 319
  - and onset of criminality, 319
  - and peer relations, 304, 322
  - process approach, 298, 317–318
  - propensity theory, 301, 320
  - rational choice perspective, 303–304
  - social learning theory, 304
  - and social reintegration, 323–325
  - state dependence perspective, 299–300
  - symbolic interactionist view, 321–322
  - and types of offense, 318–319
- Development, human. See Life span development
- Developmental match/mismatch model, developmental transitions, 424, 425
- Developmental tasks
  - and adolescent substance abuse, 426–427
  - and continuity and discontinuity concept, 420–421
  - meaning of, 420
- Developmental transitions
  - and adolescent substance abuse, 423–426
  - and continuity and discontinuity, 420, 424, 531
  - delayed and substance abuse, 426
  - models of, 424
  - precocious transitions, 422
  - and turning points, 425–426
- Difference-in-difference estimator, panel models, 508–509
- Divorce
  - Baby Boom rate of, 153
  - childhood–adulthood links, 109–111, 132–133, 401–402
  - and intergenerational relationships, 139–140
  - parental influences on offspring outcomes (study), 158–159
- Domestic violence, and family of origin, 134
- Dual-earner families, work trajectories, 198–199
- Duration, meaning of, 8
- Durkheim, Emile, 707, 708
- Early adulthood
  - developmental transitions, 419–420
  - personality trait changes, 589–590
  - and social capital, 628–629
- Easterlin effect, 26
- Education* (Russell), 36
- Education Reform Act of 1988, 253
- Educational achievement
  - early grades and adult performance, 239–244
  - and self-efficacy, 377–378
  - student incentives and social context (study), 53–73
- Educational attainment
  - family influences, 134–135, 166–167, 438
  - and health status, 634–635
  - and human capital, 627
  - pension coverage gap, 697
  - and status attainment, 438
- Educational pathways, 168–169
  - features of, 169
  - influence on educational trajectories, 169
- Educational systems, German/British/American comparisons, 252–255
- Educational trajectories, 171–182
  - complications in study of, 180–182
  - future research directions, 180
  - influence on educational pathways, 169
  - life course perspective, 170–171
  - Matthew effect, 174–177, 179
  - models for study of, 172–174
  - retraining perspective, 176
  - and status attainment research, 166–167

- Educational trajectories (cont.)
 United States/Great Britain comparison, 179–180
 women, 174–175
- Educational transitions
 as life course transitions, 170–171
 models for study of, 172–174
- Elder, Glen H., Jr., 3, 14, 371, 404, 439, 532, 548, 590, 661, 682, 708
- Elderly
 nursing home versus family caregiving, 138–139
 and self-efficacy, 383
 and social capital, 629, 630
See also Grandparents; Intergenerational relationships
- Elias, Norbert, 707
- Eliason, Scott R., 529
- Emotional health and attachment, 392, 403
 and childhood adversity, 400
 and family. See Family influences
 and gays/lesbians, 566
 and marital status, 677
 parental influences, 131
 and self-efficacy, 276, 370–372
 stability of, 585–586
 well-being, dimensions of, 125–127
- Employment. See Adolescent employment; Work; Work trajectories
- Endocrinology
 behavioral endocrinology, 612–618
 endocrine system operation, 612–613
- Entwisle, Doris R., 229
- Environment
 gene-environment interaction, 605, 609–612
 and self-efficacy, 373–374
 shared/nonshared environmental influences, 611
- Equality of Educational Opportunity* (Coleman), 134
- Erikson, Erik, 35, 374
- Europe
 life course approach, 206–208
 life course policy, 710–712
- Event history analysis, 6, 477–500
 conceptualizing life course transition, 478–479
 coupled processes, 497–498
 Cox model, 488–489, 494
 hazard rate, 480–484
 Kaplan-Meier estimator, 484, 486
 multiple origin/destination states, 492–493 Nelson-Aalen estimator, 484–485 nonparametric analysis of single transition, 484–486 parametric models for multiple transitions, 494 parametric models for single transition, 486–492
 piecewise models, 489–490
 proportional hazard model, 482–483, 486–492
 single transition for homogeneous population, 479–484
 software for, 499–500
 survival probabilities, 480, 481, 483, 492–493
 unobserved heterogeneity, 494–497
- Evolutionary theory, life-history theory, 600–604
- Expectations, age-linked, 85–86
- Exposure model, personality development, 590–591
- Extracurricular activities, Japanese students, 70–71
- Extraversion, stability of trait, 583–584
- Family
 and age structuring, 82–83
 demographic changes, 83
 in life course study, 7, 9, 124–127, 129, 150–151
 size, future view, 666
- Family influences
 on adolescent well-being, 130–132
 on children's well being, 127–129
 desistance from crime, 323–324 divorce, parental, 132–133, 401–402
 on domestic violence, 134 and economic status, 127–128
 and educational achievement, 134–135
 on emotional health, 131
 family background and marital problem-solving (study), 110–118
 family context, dimensions of, 125–127 fathers, influences of, 128–129
 on gender stereotyping, 381
 intergenerational relationships, 139–140
 loss of parents, 402–404
 on marital outcome, 107, 109–111, 401
 and nursing home admissions, 138–139
 parental influences on offspring outcomes
 (study), 158–159
 and parenting of offspring, 133
 self-efficacy, 374–375
 social capital of, 127, 129
 societal norms, 393
 socioeconomic status, 127–128
 status attainment, 136–137, 166–167
 teen pregnancy, 133–134
 and work status, 136–137
See also Single-parent families
- Family structure
 meaning of, 126
 research caveats, 129
- Family transitions, 88, 90
- Fathers
 absence and delinquency, 131, 132
 Baby Boom women life path (study), 159–160
 and child well-being, 128–129
 parental influences on offspring outcomes
 (study), 158–159
 and status attainment of offspring, 136
- Fetus, hormonal influences on, 615
- Financial capital
 and adolescents, 633
 elements of, 627
- Finch, Michael D., 623
- First-grade transition, 230–247
 first reading marks, 231–233 formal student role, 230–231
 and later adult performance, 239–244

- First-grade transition (cont.)
 parental expectations, 236 school achievement, stability of, 238–240
 and socioeconomic status, 231–236, 239, 244–246
 student–school fit, 235–236 teacher influences, 235–236 test score seasonal trends, 234–235 test scores and age, 236–238
 test scores and kindergarten attendance, 233–234, 238
- Fixed-effects, panel models, 507–508, 510–513
- Frytak, Jennifer R., 623
- Functional discontinuity, 417
- Furstenberg, Frank, 661
- Future and life course. See Life course approach and future
- Gay/lesbian lives, life-story method, 562–570
- Gay Liberation movement, 564–565
- Gecas, Viktor, 369
- Gemeinschaft*, 708
- Gender differences
 age deadlines, 90 decline in U.S., 662–663
 and future study, 662–663
 school-to-work transition, 262
 self-efficacy, 380–382
 work trajectories, 196–197
See also Women
- Gender stereotypes, and socialization, 381–382
- General Social Survey (GSS), 9, 40
- General Theory of Crime*, A (Gottfredson and Hirschi), 301
- Generalized least squares (GLS) estimation
 growth models, 519–522
 panel models, 509–513
- Generation gap, generational study of, 29
- Generation X
 era of birth, 158
 gays/lesbians among, 564
 parental influences on offspring outcomes (study), 158–159
- Generational replacement versus cohort replacement, 25, 28
 meaning of, 28
- Generational studies
 complications of, 9, 41–42
 and early life course studies, 8–9, 23–25
 intergenerational studies, 28–29
- Generations
 versus cohorts, 26–28, 41–42 generational differences, 28–29
 generational identities, 41–42 generational units, 41–42, 556 interrelationship with cohort, 42, 558
 multiple meanings of, 25–26, 557
- Genetics
 genes, structure of, 604–605
 genotype/phenotype link, 605–606, 608–609
- Genetics (cont.)
See also Behavioral genetics
- George, Linda K., 671
- German General Social Survey, 265
- Germany
 educational goals, 255
 educational system, 252–255, 263
 labor market, 188–190
 school-to-work transition, 258–265
- Gessellschaft*, 708
- GI Bill, 13, 563
- Glenn, Norval D., 465
- Glick, Paul, 7
- Global perspectives
 cross-societal variations, 649–651
 deinstitutionalization of life course, 652–655
 European life course policy, 710–712
 future directions, 656, 667–668
 global aging, 695
 nation-state and globalization, 710 and risks related to population, 695–696 subcultural variations, 651–652
- GLOBALIFE project, 549
- Goldscheider, Frances K., 681
- Government policy. See State and life course; Welfare state
- Grandmother hypothesis, 601–602
- Grandparents
 and family relationship, 139–140, 152
 as head of household, 155 role in multigenerational families, 155
- Great Britain
 educational goals, 256
 educational system, 252–255, 263
 school-to-work transition, 258–265
- Great Depression
 cohort effect, 9, 26, 31
 life course study of, 14, 371, 404, 439, 532, 548, 590, 708
- Growth models, 513–525
 generalized least squares (GLS) estimation, 519–522
 level 1 specification, 515–516, 518–519
 level 2 specification, 516–517, 519, 522, 522–523
 linear random effects growth model, 517–518
 random effects model, 519–520
 time-invariant explanatory variables, 523–525 time-varying explanatory variable, 518–523
- Hagestad, Gunhild, 88–92
- Halaby, Charles N., 503
- Harley, Carolyn R., 623
- Hazard rate, event history analysis, 480–484
- Hazards, of life course, 694
- Health insurance, decline in coverage, 699
- Health and Retirement Study, 698
- Health status
 adolescents, 130–131, 632–635
 childhood–adulthood link, 131, 397–400

- Health status (cont.)
 and developmental transitions, 424–425
 and educational attainment, 634–635
 health and migration (study), 351–360
 and human capital, 627
 and marital status, 138
 middle age, 635–637 resource-based model, 630–631
 and social capital, 627–638
 and socioeconomic status, 398–399, 623–637
 and well-being, 125
- Heinz, Walter R., 185
- Heritability studies. See Behavioral genetics
- Heterogeneity
 and disaggregated approach, 676–677
 heterogeneity bias, panel models, 508–509 heterogeneity perspective, desistance from crime, 299–300
 research approaches, 532–533
- High School and Beyond study American, 265
 Japanese, 60–73
- Higher education, and adolescent employment, 449–452
- Hill, Reuben, 7
- History
 generational phenomenon, 24–25
 historical change, demographic studies, 687 historical demography, elements of, 684 latent life path application, 548–549
 in life course approach, 12–13, 151
 period effect, 9
See also Sociohistorical approach
- Hofer, Scott M., 597
- Hogan, Dennis P., 681
- Holistic-content approach, life-story method, 560, 562, 566–567
- Homework
 American students and, 64 Japanese students and, 65, 68–73
- Homosexuality, gay/lesbian lives (study), 562–570
- Homotypic continuity, 417
- Hormones
 functions/operation of, 612–614 measurement difficulties, 613
 regulation of, 613
See also Behavioral endocrinology
- Hostetler, Andrew, 555
- Human agency. See Agency principle
- Human capital
 and adolescents, 633
 and educational trajectories, 174–175
 elements of, 627
 and health status, 627
- Human capital theory, basic principle of, 180–181
- Identification problem, age-period-cohort model, 467
- Identity cohorts, 556
- Identity development, and adolescent substance abuse, 427
- Immigration laws, of United States, 336–338, 339–340
- Impressionable years model, stability of individual, 38, 39
- Income status, and self-efficacy, 380
- Increasing persistence model, stability of individual, 39
- Individual differences, stability over time, 36–39
- Individualism
 versus age deadlines (study), 88–92
 institutional form of, 208
- Individualization, of life course, 84–85
- Infancy
 attachment theory, 392
 and later self-efficacy, 372–373
- Infant mortality
 and socioeconomic status, 625
 and unmarried mothers, 128
- Institutional model, person-job matching, 190–191, 200
- Institutional setting, parental loss and child outcome, 403–404
- Institutionalization, life course deinstitutionalization, aspects of, 84, 652–655, 693–694
 and education, 169
 and family, 124
 impact on life course, 84
 meaning of, 84
- Interdependence. See Linked lives
- Intergenerational relationships and aging population, 151–153
 future research directions, 161–162
 grandparents, 155
 kinkeeping role, 155–156
 and later life well-being, 139–140 parent/adult child coresidence, 154 quality, influencing factors, 139–140
 and single-parent families, 153–154
 and sociohistorical change (study), 156–157
 and women in labor force, 156
- Interlocked trajectories, meaning of, 532
- Japan
 choice-based reforms, 57–60
 homework time and college attendance, 60–61
 Japanese High School and Beyond survey, 60–73 “exam hell,” 63, 65–67 extracurricular activities, 70–71
 homework time, 65, 68–73
 social class and effort, 69–70
 TV watching, 71–72
 meritocracy orientation, 55–57
- Jasso, Guillermina, 331
- Johnson, Monica Kirkpatrick, 3
- Juvenile delinquency. See Delinquency
- Kansas City Study of Adult Life, impact of, 87
- Kaplan-Meier estimator, event history analysis, 484, 486
- Kariya, Takehiko, 51
- Kerckhoff, Alan C., 251
- Kindling model, depression, 615
- Kinkeeping, elements of, 155–156

- Labor force, women, increase of, 155, 187–188
- Latent growth curve analysis (LGCA), 676–677 limitations of, 676–677
 research examples, 676
- Latent life path model, 530–550
 challenges to method, 531–533
 cross-national research application, 549 historical context application, 548–549 life events application, 549–550 mid-adolescence to mid-adulthood example, 537–546 psychological forces, examination of, 547–548 role configurations/life paths, 533–536 statistical assumptions in, 551–552 theoretical foundation of, 530–531
- Laub, John H., 295
- Learned-helplessness, and depression, 370
- Least-squares estimation, panel models, 507–508
- Leisering, Lutz, 205
- Life course approach, 305–306
 age-normative framework, 88 basic assumption, 85
 basic principles of, 10–14, 672 comparison of North American and European approaches, 206–208 demographic studies in, 681–690 future view. See Life course approach and future adult children, 667 and age, 666–667
 bio-medical research, 668
 deinstitutionalization of life course, 652–655, 693–694
 educational trajectories, 180
 family size, 666
 gender differences, 662–663
 global perspective, 649–656, 667–668
 life course methods, 667–668
 and life course risks/hazards, 694–696
 midcourse years, 284–285
 modernity and life course, 704–712
 racial and ethnic minorities, 663–664
 retirement, 667
 social causation, 674–675
 and social change, 654–655
 social class, 664–665
 social selection, 674–675
 and sociology, 673
 state and life course, 221–223
 and technology, 668
 global perspective, 649–652
 historical development of, 3–10 institutionalization of life course, 124 life course as construct, 647, 649–653 life course as explanatory strategy, 648, 653–655 multifaceted phenomenon approach, 529–530
 research methods. See Life course methods
 social context in, 52–53
- Life course methods
 age-period-cohort model, 466–475
 cohort studies, 9–10
 cross-sectional surveys, 31
 demographic, 681–690
 early development of, 5–10, 465–466
 event history analysis, 6, 477–500
 future view, 667–668
 growth models, 513–525
 latent growth curve analysis (LGCA), 676–677
 latent life path model, 530–550
 life-history approach, 600–604
 life story method, 556–570
 longitudinal approach, 5–6
 methodological challenges, 531–533, 550
 panel designs, 31
 research traditions, 672–673
See also specific methods
- Life experience, and personality development, 590–591
- Life-history theory, 6, 600–604
 analytic approaches, 601–602 context in, 602
 life course principles in, 602–604 natural selection in, 600–601 research pros/cons, 603–604
- Life span development age, meanings of, 10
 age norms, meanings of, 85–86
 childhood–adulthood links, 392–404
 continuity and discontinuity, 415–421
 development, cumulative nature of, 395 individual differences, stability of, 36–39 life course patterns, changing of, 83, 84 and life course research, 6, 150–151 life course timing principle, 12–13 linked lives principle, 13–14
 multidimensional approach to, 415–416 self-efficacy development, 370–383
 and social change, 34–40
 temporal concepts in, 8
 and transitions/turning points, 395
See also Childhood–adulthood links;
 Family influences; Self-efficacy; Socialization
- Life-span theory of control, 94
- Life-story method, 556–570
 categorical-content (content analysis) approach, 560, 562
 categorical-form (discourse analysis) approach, 560
 changes in story over time, 561–562 gay/lesbian lives (study), 562–570 holistic-content approach, 560, 562, 566–567 inquiry-guided perspective, 560–561
 and qualitative analysis, 566
 and quantitative analysis, 562 social change information, 565–566 social science use of, 559–562 themes in data analysis, 567–570

- Lifelong openness model, stability of individual, 38
- Lifetime models, of employment, 82
- Linear random effects growth model, 517–518
- Linked lives concept
in life course approach, 13–14, 151, 672
meaning of, 478
and migration analysis, 340
- Longevity
and intergenerational relationships, 152–153
life expectancy of Americans, 152
and marital status, 137–138
and occupation, 281–282
- Longitudinal approach
early studies, 5–6
first presentation of concept, 3, 5 panel designs, elements of, 31
- Longitudinal Study of Generations (LSOG), 156–157, 161
- McCammion, Ryan J., 23
- McLeod, Jane D., 391
- Macmillan, Ross, 529
- Maggs, Jennifer L., 413
- Magnusson, David, 6
- Mannheim, Karl, 23, 25, 26, 27, 41, 555–556, 557–558
- Marital conflict
elements of, 105, 106–107
family background and marital problem-solving (study), 110–118
problem-solving versus coping, 106 and retired spouse, 279
and testosterone levels, 615
- Market model, person-job matching, 191, 200
- Marriage commitment process, 108–109 conflict in. See Divorce; Marital conflict and health/longevity, 137–138
and mental health status, 677 outcome and parental divorce, 109–111, 132–133, 401–402
retirement transition, 278–280
same-sex, 565
satisfaction, Baby Boom women life path (study), 159–160
- Massoglia, Michael, 311
- Mastery
meaning of, 276
and well-being, 276
- Matthew effect
on educational trajectories, 174–177
and socioeconomic status, 177–178
- Maturation, 587–588
definitions of, 588
and desistance from crime, 300–302
elements of, 301
and personality change, 588
- Medicare, 272
- Mendelian genetics, 598, 608
Mendelian-based genetic models, 608
- Menopause, grandmother hypothesis, 601–602
- Mental health status. See Emotional health
- Midcourse years
age range of, 274
future research, 284–285
retirement as process, 270, 274 and social policy, 285
See also Retirement
- Middle age, social capital and health status, 635–636
- Midlife stability model, stability of individual, 38, 39
- Migration analysis data for, 341–344
framework for study, 332–338
health and migration (study), 351–360
illegal immigrants, 343 justice and status and propensity to emigrate (study), 344–351
life course themes, 338–339
and linked lives concept, 340
U.S. migration laws in, 336–338
- Mills, C. Wright, 3–4, 661
- Modernity, 704–712
Chicago school studies, 707–708
and life course theory, 653–655, 706–708
modern life, features of, 704–706
- Moen, Phyllis, 269
- Monitoring the Future Study, 312
- Mortimer, Jeylan T., 437
- Motivation
and self-efficacy, 370–371
student incentives and social context (study), 53–73
- Mueller, Margaret, 123
- Multigenerational families. See Intergenerational
relationships
- National Child Development Study (NCDS), 265
- National Election Studies (NES), 33
- National Health Insurance Survey, 625
- National Household Education Survey, 176
- National Longitudinal Study of Adolescent Health, 504
- National Longitudinal Survey of Labor Market Experience of Young Women, 175
- National Longitudinal Survey of Mature Women, 6, 280
- National Longitudinal Surveys, 6
- National Survey of Families and Households, 176, 279
- National Youth Survey, 304
- Natural selection
basic principle of, 598, 600–601
life-history theory, 600–601
selectivity mechanism, 601
- Nature and nurture, 599
- Nelson-Aalen estimator, event history analysis, 484–485
- Neugarten, Bernice, 6, 85, 87, 661
- New Immigrant Survey (NIS), 343–344

- Newcomb, Theodore, 35
- Nursing homes, versus family caregiving, 138–139
- Oakland Growth Study, 5, 12–13
- Oesterle, Sabrina, 437
- Olson, Linda Steffel, 229
- O'Malley, Patrick M., 413
- Ontogenetic view
  - ontogenic continuity and discontinuity, 417–418
  - personality development, 588–589
- Openness to experience, trait stability, 586–587
- Optimization in primary and secondary control (OPS), 94
- O'Rand, Angela M., 693
- Origin of Species, The* (Darwin), 598
- Ortega y Gasset, José, 24, 25, 26, 27
- Overload model, developmental transitions, 424
- Pallas, Aaron M., 165
- Panel models
  - difference-in-difference estimator, 508–509
  - elements of, 31, 505
  - fixed-effects, 507–508, 510–513
  - generalized least squares (GLS) estimation, 509–513
  - growth models, 513–525
  - heterogeneity bias, 508–509
  - issues addressed by, 503–504
  - least-squares estimation, 507–508
  - random effects, 506–507
  - specification tests/extensions, 509–513
- Panel Study of Income Dynamics, 6
- Parental influences. See Family influences; Fathers; Socialization
- Parenting practices, family influences, 133
- Paths of a Generation study, 9
- Pathways
  - educational pathways, 168–169
  - meaning of, 8, 168
  - social pathways, 8
- Peer relations
  - and desistance from crime, 304, 322
  - and self-efficacy, 376–377
- Pension plans
  - forms of, 696–697
  - public misunderstanding of, 698
- Period effect
  - compared to cohort effects, 30
  - meaning of, 9, 29–30, 40
  - social change, 29–30
- Persistence model, stability of individual, 36–38
- Personal environments, demographic approach, 685
- Personal narrative. See Life-story method
- Personality development
  - and historical context, 590
  - and life experience, 590–591
  - and mental health. See Emotional health
  - ontogenetic view, 588–589
  - sociogenic view, 589–590
- Personality development (cont.)
  - traits and change. See Personality trait stability and work experience, 192
- Personality trait stability, 580–592
  - in agreeableness, 584
  - change in traits, theories of, 589–591
  - classical trait perspective, 580
  - in conscientiousness, 584–585
  - contextual perspective, 580
  - emotional stability, 585–586
  - in extraversion, 583–584
  - impressionable years model, 38, 39
  - increasing persistence model, 39
  - lifelong openness model, 38
  - and maturity, 587–588
  - mean-level changes, 582–588
  - midlife stability model, 38
  - in openness to experience, 586–587
  - persistence model, 36–38
  - rank-order stability, 581–582
  - stability of, 36–39
  - temperament, 392–393
- Phenotypes, 605–606
- Piecewise models, event history analysis, 489–490
- Planful competence, and self-efficacy, 371–372, 383
- Play, gender stereotypic, 381–382
- Polish Peasant in Europe and America* (1918–1920), 3, 332, 707
- Poverty
  - and child outcomes, 127–128, 134, 135
  - and health status, 398–399
  - intergenerational transmission of, 137
  - See also* Socioeconomic status
- Power, personal. See Self-efficacy
- Pregnancy, adolescent, 133–134, 155
- Prescriptive age norms, 86
- Prison inmates
  - and off-time normative transitions, 313–314
  - prison population statistics, 313
  - See also* Criminal behavior
- Privatization, risks related to, 695–696
- “Problem of Generations, The” (Mannheim), 23
- Problem-solving
  - compared to coping, 106
  - family background and marital problem solving (study), 110–118
- Propensity theory, desistance from crime, 301, 320
- Proportional hazard model, event history analysis, 482–483, 486–492
- Proscriptive age norms, 86
- Prospect theory, retirement, 276–277
- Protestant Ethic, The* (Weber), 707
- Prototionals, in welfare state, 214
- Psychiatric disorders, and parental loss, 402–403
- Psychology, age norms, meaning of, 86
- Putnam, Robert, 24
- Putney, Norella M., 149

- Quantitative genetic analysis, 606–608
 Quantitative trait loci (QTL), 608–609
- Racial and ethnic minorities
   female versus male achievement, 663 racial barriers, future view, 663–664
   retirement, 282
   self-efficacy, 380
   variation in life course patterns, 651
   See also African-Americans
- Random effects, panel models, 506–507
- Rapid Couple Interaction System (RCISS), 113
- Rational choice perspective, desistance from crime, 303–304
- Reflexivity, and self, 370
- Relationships
   and infancy attachment, 392
   and social capital, 627
- Research methods. See Life course methods
- Retirement
   biographical pacing concept, 275
   and caregiving relations, 279–280
   at earlier age, 194, 698
   future view, 667
   historical trends, 272–274 life course model, 271, 275–276 and marital relations, 278–279
   and nature of job, 281
   pension coverage, gender/education gaps, 697 pension structures, 696–697 post-retirement employment, 282
   as process, 270, 274
   prospect theory, 276–277
   racial and ethnic minorities, 282
   role context approach, 270–271
   volunteer work, 283
   women, 273, 277
   and workplace conditions, 280–281
- Reverse causation, 532
- Risks
   defined, 694
   and life course approach and future, 694–696
- Roberts, Brent W., 579
- Robins, Richard W., 579
- Rosenbaum, James E., 51
- Russell, Bertrand, 36
- Sampson, Robert J., 295
- School transitions
   first-grade transition, 230–247
   policy implications, 244–246 transition to work. See School-to-work transition
- School-to-work transition
   age of, 259–261
   employer participation, 256
   gender differences, 262
   labor force entry patterns, 261–262
   school plus work patterns, 258–259
- School-to-work transition (cont.)
   and structure of educational systems, 263–264 student alternatives, 257
- Schulenberg, John E., 413
- Sears, Robert, 6
- Selectivity, demographic method, 685–687
- Self
   agency of. See Agency principle; Self-efficacy and modern society, 208–209
   and reflexivity, 370
   social learning theory, 369–370
   sociological views, 369–370
- Self-attribution, meaning of, 373
- Self-authenticity, meaning of, 371
- Self-concept
   childhood–adulthood link, 394–395
   developmental concepts, 373 and self-immunization, 383
- Self-efficacy, 370–383
   children of Great Depression, 371
   and education, 377–378
   and elderly, 383
   elements of, 372
   family influences, 374–375
   gender differences, 380–382
   high/low and life course, 370 and infancy experiences, 372–373
   and motivation, 370–371
   and peer relations, 376–377
   person-environment interaction, 373–374
   planful competence concept, 371–372, 383
   racial and ethnic minorities, 380
   and sibling interaction, 375–376
   and social comparison, 373
   social learning theory, 372–373
   stability of, 382–383
   and work environment, 378–380
- Self-esteem
   and academic performance, 377–378
   Baby Boom women life path (study), 159–160
   parental influences on offspring outcomes (study), 158–159
   self-enhancement programs, 378
- Self-fulfilling prophesy, and self-efficacy, 370, 382–383
- Self-immunization, 383
- Self-objectivation, elements of, 370
- September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, period effect, 30
- Setterstein, Richard A., Jr., 81
- Shanahan, Lilly, 597
- Shanahan, Michael J., 597
- Shared/nonshared environmental influences, 611
- Sibling interaction birth order and, 376
   and self-efficacy, 375–376
- Silent Generation and Baby Boom women life path (study), 159–160
   era of birth, 159

- Single-parent families
 child outcome, 128
 and delinquency, 132
 and educational achievement, 134–135
 and intergenerational relationships, 153–154
 and self-efficacy of children, 375
- Social capital of adolescents, 628, 632–635
 and elderly, 629
 father influence, 129
 and health status, 627–638
 meaning of, 127, 627
 and middle age, 635–637
 sources/domains of, 633–634
 and young adulthood, 628–629
- Social causation, future research, 674–675
- Social change
 Age–Period–Cohort model of, 29–31 and cohort replacement, 34–36, 40–41
 life course study of, 557–559
 and work, 187–188
- Social class distinctions
 future view, 664–665
See also Socioeconomic status
- Social comparison, and self-efficacy, 373
- Social context
 in life course approach, 5–6, 52–53, 672
 student incentives and social context, 53–73
- Social control, and age-based norms, 86
- Social institutions, and work trajectories, 194–196
- Social learning theory
 desistance from crime, 304
 of self, 369–370
 of self-efficacy, 372–373
- Social pathways
 early models, 7
 elements of, 8
- Social policy
 meaning of, 210
 and midcourse years, 285
See also Welfare state
- Social relationships
 and health status, 627
 and social capital, 627
- Social Security, 92, 272
- Social selection, future research, 674–675
- Social structure, meaning of, 627
- Social support
 and health status, 138
 and social capital, 627
- Socialization
 gender stereotypic, 381–382
 and grandparents, 155
 and peers, 376–377
 as reciprocal process, 126, 375
 of societal norms, 393
 and work trajectories, 192–193
- Socioeconomic status
 and adolescent employment, 440–441, 446, 448–449 categories by education/income, 631–632 and child outcome, 125, 127–128
 children of divorce, 401–402 cumulative advantage/disadvantage, 629
 and educational attainment, 134–135, 166–167, 438
 and first-grade performance, 231–236, 239, 244–246
 and health status, 398–399, 623–637
 intergenerational stability, 394 and Matthew effect, 177–178
 and parental values, 393
 and social capital, 629–630
 student incentives and social context (study), 69–70
See also Poverty
- Sociogenic view, personality development, 589–590
- Sociohistorical approach chronologization, 83–84
 and cohorts, 9–10, 26–27
 and early life course studies, 7–8 historical shifts and age structuring, 83–85 institutionalization, 84
 to intergenerational relationships (study), 156–157, 161
 life story method, 556–571
 personality and historical context, 590 to social change, 29–31, 34–36, 40–41
 standardization, 84
- Sociology
 age norms, meaning of, 86
 biology–sociology link, 598–599
 Chicago school, 707–708
 crime/deviance, theories of, 302, 321
 and life course research, future view, 673 self, view of, 369–370
- Software, for event history analysis, 499–500
- Spencer, Herbert, 598
- Stability
 compared to continuity and discontinuity, 416
 criminal behavior, 299, 301, 302–303, 317
 educational achievement, 239–244
 environmental influences, 393–394
 models of, 36–39
 persistence over time, 36–39 of personality. See Personality trait stability
 of self-efficacy, 382–383
 temperament, 392–393
See also Childhood–adulthood links
- Staff, Jeremy, 437
- Standardization
 educational systems, comparative view, 253
 elements of, 84
- State dependence perspective, desistance from crime, 299–300
- State and life course American versus European approach, 206–208
 future directions, 221–223

- State and life course (cont.)
 and globalization, 710–712
 life course policy as national task, 708–710 policies, comparative view, 215–218 policies, complications of, 218–221 social policy as life course policy, 210–211 state interest, historical view, 208 state/life course relationship, 209–211
See also Welfare state
- Status attainment
 and adolescent work, 438–439
 and educational attainment, 438
 family influences, 136–137, 166–167
 research studies of, 166–167
 Wisconsin model, 166
- Status offenses, 319
- Stonewall riots, 564
- Stouffer, Samuel, 24
- Stratification, educational systems, comparative view, 252–253, 256
- Strauss, Anselm, 708
- Stress, hormonal response, 613, 616
- Structural lag
 causes of, 83
 and retirement, 271
- Structural theory
 basic principle of, 185
 work life course, 185–201
- Substance abuse, and teens. See Adolescent substance abuse
- Survival probabilities, event history analysis, 480, 481, 483, 492–493
- Symbolic interactionist view
 desistance from crime, 321–322
 self, 369
- Synthetic philosophy, 598
- Systems theory, 599
- Tallman, Irving, 103
- Tasks. See Developmental tasks
- Teacher influences, first-grade transition, 235–236
- Technology, and future directions, 668
- Temperament, stability of, 392–393
- Terman Gifted Children study, 5–6, 11, 39
- Testosterone, behavioral endocrinology studies, 615–617
- Thomas, W. I., 3, 5, 332, 707–708
- Thompson, E.P., 7
- Time
 individualization of time, 704–705
 in life course approach, 12–13, 151, 672
 temporal concepts and life stages, 8
- Timetables, age norms/expectations, 94–95
- Timing, principle in life course theory, 12–13
- Total institutions, state-controlled life course, 213
- Traits over life span. See Personality trait stability
- Trajectories educational, 171–182
 interlocked, 532
 meaning of, 8, 531
 relationship to transitions, 8, 531 research challenges related to, 531–533
 work, 185–201
- Transitions
 behavioral endocrinology approach, 616
 and development. See Developmental transitions
 family, 88, 90
 global, 420
 individual influences on, 420
 and life span development, 395
 meaning of, 8, 395, 531
 relationship to trajectories, 8, 531
 and schooling. See Educational transitions; School transitions
 statistical analysis. See Event history analysis
- Trust
 cohort studies of, 9
 marital, 108–109
- Trzesniewski, Kali H., 579
- Turning points
 and developmental transitions, 425–426
 and life span development, 395
 and linked lives principle, 13
 meaning of, 8, 13, 395
- Twin studies, behavioral genetics method, 606–607
- Uggen, Christopher, 311
- Uhlenberg, Peter, 123
- United States
 educational goals, 255
 educational system, 252–255, 264
 individualism and life course, 91–92
 life course approach, 206–208
 migration data, 341–344 migration laws, 336–338
 school-to-work transition, 258–265
- Unraveling Juvenile Delinquency* (Glueck and Glueck), 305
- Vocational programs, German/British/American comparisons, 252–255
- Volunteer work, retirees, 283
- Vulnerability, and developmental transitions, 424
- Ward, Lester, 598
- Weber, Max, 707
- Welfare state American interpretation of, 206–207, 220
 elements of, 205–206 European interpretation of, 206–207
 and life course, 211–214
 modes of operation, 211–212 political economy approach, 215, 216

- Welfare state (cont.)
and risk management, 213
social policy approach, 215, 216–217 and status of individual, 213–214
time structures of, 214
See also State and life course
- Welfare support, intergenerational factors, 137
- Well-being dimensions of, 125–127
and family. See Family influences
and gays/lesbians, 566
and self-efficacy, 276, 370–372
See also Emotional health
- Weymann, Ansgar, 703
- Wisconsin model, status attainment, 166
- Women
adolescent employment of, 445
Baby Boomer life path (study), 159–160
educational trajectories, 174–175
elderly and poverty, 273
kinkeeping role, 155–156
pension coverage gap, 697
personality trait changes, 589
retirement, 273, 277–280
work force participation, 156, 187
work trajectories, 196–197
See also Gender differences
- Work
adolescents. See Adolescent employment
and age structuring, 82
and desistance from crime, 323
- Work (cont.)
family influences, 136–137
health insurance coverage, 699 historical changes related to, 186–187 lifetime models of, 82
pension plans, 697–699
post-retirement, 282 retirement decision, 280–281
and self-efficacy, 378–380
trajectories. See Work trajectories transition to. See School-to-work transition work status, family influences, 136–137
- Work trajectories, 185–201
dual-earner families, 198–199
gender differences, 196–197
labor markets, comparative
view, 188–190
as negotiated careers, 199–200 person-job matching, 190–191 retirement age, 193–194
and social institutions, 194–196
and socialization, 192–193
- World War II, 4, 5, 12
- Wu, Lawrence L., 477
- Youth Development Study (YDS), 314–316, 441–444, 632
social capital, measurement of, 639
See also Adolescent employment
- Znaniecki, Florian, 3, 332, 707–708